TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

ONE of the most pleasing and interesting teachers' institutes ever held in Lincoln county came to an end at noon Friday. Following is a report of the doings of the last day:

THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

At 3 o'clock Instructor Cassidy laid aside all work and he and the teachers threw "dull cares away" for an hour, when a very interesting and enjoyable program was carried out.

Miss Ella May Saunders, who is especially fine in Negro dialect, delighted the audience with some fine selections.

Mr. M. E. Pruitt sang a solo as only he can sing, and one of the ladies said, it reminded her of the "echoes of celestial glories."

Miss Anna Darst recited "Neath the Shadow of His Wings" in her usual sweet and charming manner.

The next on the program was a song by Miss Peyton and Messrs. McClure and Pruitt, which was thoroughly enjoyed.

Instructor Cassidy closed the entertainment with one of Paul Lawrence Dunbar's most humorous poems, "The Pabby." Everybody went away feeling that it was good to be there.

FRIDAY MORNING.

Institute was called to order at 9:30. A few songs were sung. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. R. B. Mahony, who was followed by Rev. Ware, of Pulaski, who took issue with Mr. Mahony and a lively little debate followed, which was enjoyed to the utmost by the institute.

Instructor Cassidy gave a fine talk on civil government. This subject was thoroughly discussed by the institute. Prof. Cassidy then made his farewell address, tossing bouquets at the ladies and gave the gentlemen also his sweetest smiles.

At this point the following resolutions were introduced by Mr. Mullins and adopted by the institute:

We, the teachers of Lincoln county, Ky., in session Aug. 22, 1902, do hereby heartily endorse the following resolutions:

1st. That we return the sincere thanks of our hearts to the God of all good for the many realized blessings that we have received.

2nd. That the thanks of the institute are due pastors of this city for their interest and help in the daily devotional exercises and to the INTERIOR JOURNAL for its numerous courtesies to the teachers.

3rd. That the teachers individually should and do appreciate the earnest, cordial and personal interest shown by Supt. Singleton, and that we heartily endorse his administration of school affairs, wishing him a long and prosperous term of office.

4th. That in a great measure the credit of this, the most generally satisfactory institute ever held in the county, is due the instructor, Prof. M. A. Cassidy. He brings to the work a store of practical information, unflinching tact, kindly humor and the happy faculty of calling out the best efforts of each teacher. He takes with him to-day our most sincere thanks for his work in our behalf, our earnest hope for his present and future prosperity and the assurance of our desire for the benefit of his instruction at our next meeting.

5th. That we return our thanks to Prof. Pinkerton, A. A. Warren, J. C. McClary, Miss Ella May Saunders, Miss Anna Darst and Mr. Isaac Herrin, the jailer, and to every one who has shown us courtesy and interest in our work.

6th. That we heartily thank Prof. M. E. Pruitt, chorister, and Messrs. Kate Bogle, Myrtle Hughes and Georgia Lewis for their excellent service in our music.

7th. That we necessarily condemn the action of the last Legislature of Kentucky for passing the law which requires teachers to lose a week of enforced attendance on this institution and ask that it be repealed.

8th. That we shall feel strongly inclined to lend our influence in Lincoln county to the candidate who will make an earnest effort to secure its repeal, and will work for progress in school legislation.

9th. That a copy of this be spread on the minutes and be published in the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

Misses Peyton and Lewis and Warren and Peyton sang a quartette. The choir gathered around the organ and sang "God be With You Till we Meet Again;" good byes were said, and the institute of 1902 is only a pleasant memory.

However slight at this time of year and in this climate, it is the forerunner of malaria. A disposition to yawn, and an all tired out feeling even comes before the chill. MISS LOTT GREENUP, who tried witchingly but in vain, to fiddle her father into a nomination for Congress in the first Kentucky district, is going abroad to study music and is at present the object of a great deal of newspaper comment. The New York Sun says she leaves at least 150 more or less in-consolable swains, who proposed marriage to her during her campaign. They argued rightly that as good a daughter would be a good wife and that harmony was certain with a maker of such sweet music. Good voyage and the best of teaching to her, but there should be a law against the exportation of Kentucky girls.

SCHWAB'S testimony before the United States Industrial Commission is pretty good evidence that the republicans know they are asserting that which is not true when they try to contradict the report sheets made public by Chairman Griggs, of the democratic Congressional committee. Schwab said: "It is quite true that export prices are very much lower than those here."

MOSES KAUFMAN has announced for the democratic nomination for mayor of Lexington and if he should win, and we hope he will, no doubt need be felt about his administration. It will be democratic, progressive and for the good of Lexington. What an improvement he would be on old Turncoat Duncan!

"TALLOW DICK" COMBS and Judge Beckner were the star features at the recent republican convention in Winchester. Tallow Dick was a delegate from Lee county while Judge Beckner played the part of the man who knew he was up against it and declined what was offered him—the nomination.

THE ladies will be glad to know that a new fur seal rookery has been discovered. It is on Boulder Island, 700 miles southwest of the famous Pribyloff Islands and 3,500 miles from San Francisco, yet it is in American territory.

THE picnic given by the Waynesburg Macabees Friday and Saturday was a success in every particular. Good crowds attended both days and the order was perfect. An interesting program was carried out each day, while the old fiddlers contest Friday night was a most enjoyable occasion. An immense crowd attended the contest, of which Mr. W. S. Burch, of this place, was chairman, and each player was loudly applauded. Messrs. George B. Saulley and Clark, of this place, and Singleton, of Waynesburg, were the judges and after much consideration awarded the first prize to W. H. Warren, second to Alex. Martin and third to L. H. Hall. The following gentlemen made timely talks at the picnic: Judge M. C. Saulley, Geo. B. Saulley, W. S. Burch, Revs. Nathan Singleton, T. M. Smith and others.

ANOTHER Brodhead Fair is a thing of the past and a pleasant memory to many who look forward each year to the good exhibitions given by the Rockcastle Fair Association. An immense crowd witnessed the best show of stock of the meeting Friday and order was perfect throughout. Everybody seemed bent on having a good time and if there was one who did not succeed in doing so it was no fault of the fair managers or the hospitable people who live in and around the splendid town of Brodhead. One of the most successful exhibitors of the meeting was J. C. Siler, of Paint Lick, who made 14 shows and got nearly a dozen blue ties. Roy Beazley was with him and his getting the horses in shape might have had something to do with Mr. Siler's success. Harve Dunn and Miss Hilton captured the blue tie in the fancy turnout ring, something they have done several years in succession. Mr. Dunn drove a fine pair of blacks to an elegant Stanhope. Andrew Buchanan and Miss Jean Dick, in a beautiful turnout, got second money. The crowd almost went wild when the aged Armp Hiatt won the walking ring over a large field of young bloods. Lucien Dunn, of this county, won the "silk" tie in the boys' riding ring and his father, A. C. Dunn, in the gentlemen's riding ring. The trot Friday afternoon was won in straight heats by Bud White, of Madison. Dave Wilcox got second money and Mr. Riddle third. Ben Duncan, with Don Wiggins, got the running race and R. H. Bronaugh, with Red Bond, took second money. W. D. Wallin's two-year-old was third. Mr. Wallin's speedy youngster was put in to fill, but he made a fine showing. The mule race, as usual, created much merriment. Competent judges say that this year's fair will declare a large dividend, some putting it as high as 75 per cent. The management is deserving of congratulation for the success of the enterprise.

TRUSSES.—All kinds and sizes. Lowest prices. Craig & Hocker.

THE Liberty fair begins tomorrow. If you want to have a good time, go and go early.

WHILE driving to Lancaster court yesterday, Messrs. William and Luther Underwood had an exciting time. Their horse scared, and running away, dashed them out. Mr. Luther had his face cut in several places but Mr. William escaped with a few bruises only.

MR. W. H. WEAREN, tax collector and treasurer for the graded school, was tried yesterday before Supt. Garland Singleton and exonerated of the charges of "negligence and incompetency" preferred against him. Those who know Mr. Wearen can best appreciate the absurdity of such charges.
